

Cybersecurity Sessions for High School Students: Rounds 1 & 2

Cyber Security Sessions for High School Students is an idea that was implemented at KCST in partnership with the Kuwait Foundation for the Advancement of Sciences (KFAS). This one-week program aimed to raise fundamental awareness of the cybersecurity field and increase knowledge about hacking and solving problems through lectures and hands-on exercises