

KCST teams up with the National Library of Kuwait

As part of our ongoing program to provide an abundance of opportunities to students to learn and engage in the community, KCST teamed up with the National Library of Kuwait, eager to provide learning resources to students and Alumni. The library director, HE Sheikha Rasha Al Sabah, discussed the possibility of internships and work opportunities with Prof Khalid Al Begain. We look forward to the upcoming collaborations that will enrich students' learning process.